

Your Safety at the Y

No matter where you join us - in person or online - your safety comes first.

If you feel worried, scared or unsure, we will listen and help.

If something doesn't feel right, you can always tell someone.

At the Y you have the right to Ask questions

Make choices

Be heard

Be told what is happening

Feel safe

Be safe

At the Y staff will NEVER

- ✗ Message you on personal phones or via social media
- ✗ Show you anything rude, mean or unsafe
- ✗ Ask you to keep secrets from other grown-ups
- ✗ Ignore or dismiss your concerns
- ✗ Leave anyone out or treat someone unfairly

Our Y staff will keep you safe

listen to you believe you help you

ask before taking or sharing photos or videos only use official Y platforms to talk about Y activities check with your grown-ups and keep them in the loop

take your worries seriously

Who you can talk to

Allison Ross is the Y WA's Child Protection Officer. Allison can be contacted for a further discussion on 0499 868 101 or email allison.ross@ymcawa.org.au

Your Rights. Your Safety. Your Y.

Contact us at safe@the-y.org.au

